Every so often a patron complains about not having a water fountain.  There has not been a water fountain since the 1990’s.  Cups are available for tap water.  Patrons are allowed to bring bottled water into the Library but not by the computers.  It was suggested the Library should not consider installing a water fountain since there hasn’t been one in over 20 years.  There was a suggestion to look into the possibility of getting a vending machine for bottled water.

Director’s Report

Mrs. Riskind welcomed our new Trustee, Jay Shiner, and Council Liaison, Thomas Lodato. She expressed appreciation for the support of the Borough Council and Council President Chris Tully over the past years.

The Friends asked to have a link from the Library’s web-site to Amazon for which they would receive a small percentage of the proceeds. The Friends already have a link on their web-site and have distributed this information to the Friends but would like to make it more public. Discussion followed. The Board felt that it was not appropriate to link a commercial enterprise with the Library. Mrs. Riskind will discuss the Board’s comments with the Friends.

A motion was made by Mrs. Chittum, seconded by Dr. Reynoso, to table this discussion.

Michael Birkner, a former Bergenfield resident, wrote a book entitled A Country Place No More about Bergenfield. There was a recent article about the book in the Twin-Boro. After the article was published, a few patrons came to the Library thinking we had copies of the book for sale. Mr. Birkner spoke to the Reference desk shortly after and said he would be willing to turn over the rights of the book to the Library and inquired whether the Library would be interested in selling the book as a fundraiser. The Library would be responsible for the cost of publishing copies of the book. Discussion followed. Mr. Neats suggested mentioning this endeavor to the Friends to see if they had any interest.

A motion was made by Mrs. Phipps, seconded by Mayor Schmelz, not to accept Michael Birkner’s offer for the Library Trustees and to offer the Friends the opportunity. All in favor. Motion carried.

A summary of insurance coverage for the Bergenfield Library from GJEM-Otterstedt Insurance Agency, the Borough’s Risk Manager, was distributed and discussed.
