Internet users under the age of 18 must have a signed Parent or Guardian Acceptable Use Contract on file.

The Library reserves the right to terminate an Internet session or to suspend computer privileges for failure to comply with the Acceptable Use Policy.

Computer privileges may be denied for any of the following reasons:

- For misuse of the Internet, including for illegal activities or for viewing obscene or inappropriate materials;
- For creating a disturbance or otherwise interfering with the right of others to work or use the Library, including staff;
- For uncooperative or disrespectful behavior to patrons or Library staff, including profane or offensive language;
- For misuse or disregard of Library materials or property, including, but not limited to, computer equipment.

As the parent/guardian of this child, I have read the Internet Acceptable Use Policy and the rules regarding Internet access and understand that my child must abide by them. I have read the warnings regarding Internet use and have discussed how to use the Internet safely with my child. I understand that the ultimate responsibility for supervision of my child’s Internet access to controversial materials is mine alone, and not that of the Library or its employees.

With this understanding, I hereby give permission to allow Internet access for my child and I certify that the information on this form is correct.
